PLACES TO SEE IN MUMBAI

— GATEWAY OF INDIA —

Made of yellow basalt stone, the Gateway of India was built in 1924 to commemorate the visit of King George V and Queen Mary. Overlooking the Arabian Sea, it is Mumbai's most iconic landmark and a popular tourist attraction.

— CHHATRAPATI SHIVAJI MAHARAJ TERMINUS (CST) —

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, CST is one of India's busiest railway stations. Built in 1887, its magnificent Victorian Gothic architecture blends British and Indian design elements, making it a masterpiece of heritage architecture.

— MARINE DRIVE —

Popularly known as the "Queen's Necklace," Marine Drive is a picturesque 3.6-kilometre boulevard stretching along the Arabian Sea. It offers stunning sunset views and is one of Mumbai's favourite spots for leisurely walks.

— ELEPHANTA CAVES —

Located on Elephanta Island, these UNESCO World Heritage caves date back to the 5th–8th centuries. They are famous for their impressive rock-cut sculptures dedicated to Lord Shiva, especially the magnificent Trimurti statue.

PLACES TO SEE IN MUMBAI

❖ SIDDHIVINAYAK TEMPLE ❖

Dedicated to Lord Ganesha, Siddhivinayak Temple is one of the most revered temples in India. Built in 1801, it attracts millions of devotees and visitors every year, including celebrities and dignitaries.

❖ HAJI ALI DARGAH ❖

Situated on a small islet off the coast of Worli, Haji Ali Dargah is a revered Sufi shrine of Hazrat Pir Haji Ali Shah Bukhari. It is known for its serene atmosphere, beautiful white structure, and spiritual significance.

❖ BANDRA-WORLI SEA LINK ❖

An architectural marvel and an engineering wonder, the Bandra-Worli Sea Link connects Bandra to Worli over the Arabian Sea. It is one of Mumbai's most iconic landmarks, especially stunning when lit up at night.

❖ SANJAY GANDHI NATIONAL PARK ❖

Spread across more than 100 square kilometres, this lush green national park is home to diverse wildlife, nature trails, and the ancient Kanheri Caves. It provides a refreshing escape from Mumbai's bustling city life.
